

AFAA Code

As an individual and engaged in the fire detection and alarm systems industry, I recognize my responsibility to maintain high standards of reliability in the application of the life safety and property protection systems I provide.

I therefore pledge and ascribe to the following:

- To be honest and fair in all matters with our employees, customers, subcontractors, distributors, competitors and suppliers.
- To follow nationally recognized Code and Standards, federal, state and local laws and regulations, when designing, supplying or installing fire detection and alarm systems
- To encourage and support well-founded legislation affecting our industry and the people we serve.
- To support and participate in the education of those in and regulating our industry.
- When representing the Association, I will conduct myself professionally and with decorum.
- Individually, I will strive for high standards of performance and professional competence.
- I will judge all of my actions based on the question "Is it right?" and "Is it fair?"
